learning, carefully considered, and of most commendable brevity. He has had no ambition to magnify his office. He has not encumbered his pages with a showy display of cheap learning, nor imposed upon the profession the necessity of purchasing a mass of speculative discussion, of no practical utility.

The whole work, edited throughout as the first two volumes have been, will be one of the most valuable gifts ever bestowed upon the legal profession, and will add essentially to Mr. Greenleaf's already extended reputation."—North American Review.

"His work will be valuable to every practising lawyer in the country, and ought to have a place in every library. We are happy to learn that it has been thus far well received, and we have no doubt that experience will vindicate the correctness of these first impressions."—Luw Reporter.

"It is a monument of industry, learning and research, which will prove of great utility in the practice of law and in the business of life, and, we think, cannot fail to add to the well-extrod farm which Mr. Angell has already acquired as a lawyer and writer on many important and interesting subjects connected with his profession."

MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD DR. MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY has done, we feel bound to make it knewn. There never was an article in this country that has afforded relief and gave more satisfaction than this. In the neighborhood of Brownsville, in this county, it has effected several important cures, and, from our own certain knowledge of it, we pronounce it unequalled for the cure of Coughs, Colds, and diseases of this kind."

By George P. Sanger, Counsellor at Law, Royal Svo.

"We speak from personal knowledge, and after a thorough examination, when we say, that this work has been executed with the most remarkable fadility and accuracy. To form an idea of the magnitude of the task, it may not be a miss to say that it contains between fifty and sixty thousand cases. These are alphabetically arranged, and the references are made both to the page of the volume where the case is reported, and to the page of the Digest where it is found."—Law Reporter.

TO PRINTERS—A RARE CHANCE.

THE SUBSCRIBER, wishing to engage in other business, offers for sale the Suliven County Whig printing establishment at a very low price. The Whig has been published six years, and already has a circulation of nearly eight hundred paying subscribers. Its advertising patronage is better than that of most country papers, and the office has a liberal run of job printing. The press is a Washington No. 4 Imperial, of Taylor's manufacture, and is nearly new. The type and other material are as good as can be found in a majority of country offices, and all that is required for the business. The county is bordered by the New York and Erie railroad on one side, and is one of the most growing and prosperous of the southern tier. It has now a population of nearly 30,000, being an increase of one-third in the last ten years. For the past five years the official patronage has been in the nands of the Whigs, and the prospect is fair of its continuing so to be. Only one other paper (Locofoco) is published in the county, and that is located fifteen miles farther west. To a practical printer, or any person possessing the means, this offer affords a rare opportunity for investment, as the public patronage is rapidly increasing, and the prospect of making movey never better than now.

As it is the wish of the undersigned to make immediate sale, those desiring to purchase would do well to communicate with him on the subject without delay; and any further information that may be desired will be readily given.
